SPIRITUAL FOOD FOR THE WEEK

Every living being has an inborn nature of giving and sharing mainly within their own species. When their giving-nature alters because of their later developed selfishness and conditions, it will directly affect the future growth of that particular living being. It is especially true with human beings. Sharing and giving unite humanity with each other. Furthermore, we are given the gift of knowledge to ask others in order to receive what we need. Today’s Gospel instructs us to ask God our Father with faith, search with hope and knock at the door with love. Anything we ask Him with faith, hope and love, we will be given. God, who is Love, knows how to give good gifts to His children. As our every human nature directs us to share what we have and give what we receive, our spiritual nature redirects us to God who has given us life and spirit. When we ask Him, He pours in us the Holy Spirit – the life giver. By asking Him, we develop humility in the presence of God and others and by knocking at His door, we fulfill our desire to be in the presence of God and others. So let us continue our spiritual journey with faith, hope and love. Father Peter Selvaraj

PARISH PICNIC –WHAT A BLAST!!!

Our outdoor Mass last weekend was beautiful. Thank you to all those who helped in any way with the liturgy and to Father Vic for being our homilist. The picnic was full of fun, thanks to our Social Committee and Parish Council.

Young and not so young had a great time playing games, eating great barbequed food and getting to know our fellow parishioners. The weather could not have been better.

Thank you to all those who set up and cleaned up (one of the hardest jobs) thank you, thank you, and for those who lent their canopies for the day.

Thank you to our youth, The Sisters, The Knights of Columbus, Our Liturgy Committee, Our MC, servers, musicians, entertainers, Lectors, Eucharistic ministers. The young people who participated in the games showed wonderful sportsmanship and kindness to one another. A special thank you to those who helped to organize and help with the games, tug of war, and the set up of our feed into the hall for the final World Cup Game. We could not have done all of this without the help of so many.

We look forward to seeing you at our next picnic.
