PASTORAL WEEKLY REFLECTION

On the way home, we are here to experience more of His Divine Love and kindness. On the way home, we are here to share His unending love with others. Everything that has descended has to ascend. During His earthly presence, Christ showed us the eternal life in heaven in His teaching and healing. He taught us how we all belong to One eternal Father, whose love is beyond our comprehension and understanding. Our stay here is spiritual in nature. Christ, after His resurrection, for forty days stayed with his disciples and revealed to them the secret to happiness on earth. Yes, He gave them his peace and the disciples took His divine peace wherever they went. Because of his peace, they gladly accepted suffering and even death. Through the sacrament of baptism, we are all given that divine peace. As we come to Church and put our faith into practice, the divine peace will begin to work in us. Let us hold on to his peace and thus we can see everything "New" in Him. The celebration of the Lord's Ascension today, invites us to celebrate our hope and faith in Him. Let us celebrate His Ascension sharing His peace with one another.

Father Peter
