VOCATION VIEWS

Some people do not respond to God's call because they feel they are not worthy to do God's work. And they are not - nobody is! But still God calls. There is enough ministry for many more. Answer God's call.

GOSPEL SUMMARY

Jesus taught his disciples two different things in today's gospel. First, when John came to him saying that someone, not one of them, was exorcizing demons in Jesus' name, Jesus explained that anyone who was not against them was with them. If the person acted in Jesus' name, he would not be capable of speaking out against him. The second teaching involved the way a person should respond to temptation. Not that Jesus proposed that people inflict wounds on themselves, but to make his point clearly, he suggested ridding ourselves of the parts of our bodies that lead us to sinfulness. Rather than commit sinful acts using our hands, eyes, feet, or ears, it would be better to enter heaven without those body parts than to use them sinfully and live in eternal damnation.

My Dear People of God,

This year, the Catholic Canadian Organization for Development and Peace (CCODP) asks you to support small-scale farmers in the Global South. Small-scale farmers are among those denied the basic human rights to food. They are fighting to keep their land, for the right to grow what they choose and to live in dignity. Please keep yourself informed of their plight for justice by taking a little bit of your time to read the information materials "Life Before Profit" inserted in your bulletin this week. The following weekend, you will be requested to sign a petition card asking the Prime Minister and Members of Parliament to act against hunger in the world and support the small-scale farmer. Your signature demonstrates your solidarity with the poor in their quest for justice. They are counting on YOU. Sincerely Father Vic.

RECTORY ROOF UPDATE

Last winter we had some severe ice damming and resulting leaking because of our rectory roof. We have recently had our rectory roof replaced with a steel roof. This was an unforeseen expense and we appreciate the extra donations you have been giving to our Special needs collection each month. Please continue to be as generous as you can. The cost of the roof was approximately $12,000.00.
